History of Roberts Chapel Baptist Church 1848 to 1886

Today, October 31, 1948, you and I breathe with excitement as we settle back in our up-to date pews in a pretty brick church in Pendleton, ready to review a century of religious activity and worship of our own Roberts Chapel BAPTIST Church.

As a movie flashes scenes from the past, I would transport you a full century back to sparsely settled country side full of pine trees with here and there an open field on which stood a good house with smaller huts nestled nearby belonging to the darkies. Woodard's Cross Roads, now Pendleton; Martin's Cross Roads, now Conway; and Cross Locks, now on the edge of Severn, appear as open spaces, with important lanes, small creek roads and paths.

A small Methodist Church called Zion flashes in view on the Conway-Creeksville Road and one on the Murfreesboro-Boykins Road by way of Cross-Locks called Providence, now Severn Methodist Church, loom into sight. Slowly the camera follows all the surrounding territory and fields until it settles on a little rectangular old building on top of a sloping hill almost surrounded by woods about 400 yards south of Woodard's Crossing. In front of it two men are talking and a young negro slave respectfully stands in calling distance. Over on one side of the chapel are a few horses tied to branches of trees and a solitary cart drawn by oxen stands peacefully in the background.

What have we here we wonder, when suddenly we hear the conversation between the two men.

"Roberts Chapel is NOT a Baptist church YET", one says.

"No, but neither can you Methodist lay claim to it on the Lord's Day, either", retorts the other.

And then, as we intently listen we learn much we've often thought of and wondered about. No one knows just how old Roberts Chapel is nor whence came its name. We do know the building was an old one and that it was a "Mission Chapel" It COULD have been that when the colonies were being settled a large part of this territory was granted to the Englishman, Earl of Granville, and that he gave his subjects Roberts Chapel in which to worship, both masters and slaves; therefore, it was state property. Some say it was named from a man named Roberts who lived nearby; others say it was named Roberts Chapel by the congregation, after the carpenter who constructed the building and who, it is reported, fell from the roof and died.

Our scene changes again; the men have gone into this Roberts Chapel and we find a small room with an arched-shaped ceiling and a low balcony for the colored members. A small group of men and women, including slaves in the gathering, are heatedly debating the query, "Which are correct, the spiritual views of the Baptist or those of the Methodist?" Leaders of both sides are present and, as they talk, they reveal that the church has been interdenominational and has been alternating services and preachers, always accepting the services of traveling ministers and home missionaries mostly from the Chowan and Kehukee Associations, or from the Southern border of Virginia.

As the group disperses, the Methodist are claiming that the judges, one of which was Mr. Rogers, Kade Rogers' great grandfather, had rendered a bias decision and that they would attend elsewhere from now on. The Baptist, who are in larger number agree to ask a group of elders over to help them organize a new Baptist Church that they might not have to journey so far as Potecasi, Meherrin, or Mt. Carmel for worship in their own religion. They decided on the third Lord's Day in October, 1848 as the day for organization.

When the little church on the hill appears again, one can count at least 41 people moving into the small chapel. The three preachers who expertly took over the organization were Elder James Delk, who had twice been pastor at Meherrin and at this time was preaching at different churches and holding Protracted Meetings, both in Virginia and North Carolina. It was his son, James Delk, II, who was professor at Chowan College for 20 years and who our grandparents remembered.); Elder Geo. W. Thompson, who was the pastor at Meherrin at this particular time; and Rev. Amos P. Battle, who was agent and Steward of the Chowan Female Institute, previously had been principal of Elm Grove Boarding School at Mapleton. By request Rev. Delk preached a sermon introductory to the service from Acts 2nd Chapter 47th Verse which reads, "Praising God, and having favor with all the people, And the Lord added to the church daily such as should be saved." After this, Mr. Thompson was chosen Chairman and Mr. Battle, clerk of the Council.

14 brethern and 16 sisters then presented to the Council their evidences of fitness for being constituted into a separate church. A church Covenant, Articles of Faith, and Rules of Decorum were found in order with Gospel Principles and the Baptist Denominations, and they were declared a Branch of the Church of Christ. Prayer was offered by Bro. Archibald McDowell, Miss Eunice McDowell's father, of Murfreesboro, and Elder Thompson delivered the charge. The benediction was pronounced by Elder Battle.

To all of this the Council ordered the Charter members sign their names. They read alphabetically as follows:

James Atkinson, Issac Baugham, William Boone, Henry W. DeLoatch, Silas Edwards, John T. Edwards, Charlie Gatling, Wm. K. Howell, Jeremiah P. Johnson, Eli Strickland, Abraham Stephenson, John D. L. Vaughan, Jesse J. Vaughan, Joseph J. Vaughan.

Conference was held on the same day immediately after the church was constituted. Aided by the ministers, Silas Edwards, John D. L. Vaughan, and William Boone were chosen deacons. Mr. Vaughan and Mr. Boone were then ordained, Mr. Edwards having been previously ordained as deacon of Potecasi Church. Those who were new church members and joined the church that day by baptism at the close of the meeting were: David C. Boone, Mary J. Stephenson, Rhoda Stephenson, Mary L. Boone, and Martha Bryant, all white and Madison Tann and Betsy Tann Airy, colored.

It is interesting to note here that Madison Tann was the first person ever to be expelled from this church, staying in trouble from the first time of his joining until being "excommunicated" for drunkenness. The church minutes show that the church had a difficult time in assisting its members to follow Christlike living; often appointing committee to settle disputes and differences between members and pastor, and in guarding their moral and social activities. A person's character and reputation had to be good or they had to report to a committee sent out by the church conference, which met every 3rd Saturday at first and which we have continued to have monthly on 1st Saturday until the last few years.

Under Rules of Decorum accepted, I found this interesting item: "No member shall leave the conference without permission of a majority of members present nor allow themselves to talk and whisper to each other in time of conference." Always there was a sermon and the big item of roll call. Each member was required to be present or give a good excuse which had to be accepted by vote by the conference. A good part of our old minutes is taken up in giving names of absentees and names of committees and their reports on absentee's conduct and finances. Women at first were required to attend these conferences; later it became optional.

At the first meeting after being organized in December, '48, letters were presented by Martha Ricks and Mary Vaughan, white, and Senior, colored man belonging to Silas Edwards. Issac Baugham, Silas Edwards, and William Boone were selected as a committee to call Rev. Amos J. Battle of Chowan Female Institute to become pastor of our church with services every 3rd Saturday and Sunday. "If he cannot accept", the minutes read, "a call is to be extended to Rev. Wm. P. Britton, Jr." $3.12½ to pay incidental expenses was raised at this second meeting.

At the third meeting, which was in February 1849, the committee on pastor reported Mr. Battle declined the call on account of the increasing duties on his hands as agent and Steward of Chowan Female Institute. They then reported the call had been extended to and accepted by Elder Wm. P. Britton, Jr. and that he cheerfully accepted the call and would enter his duties as pastor of the church at that very meeting.

Money was very tight back in these days. The church petitioned to join the Chowan Association and sent a delegate with $1.50 to the Associational meeting. Later they joined the Bertie Union Meeting. $7.30 was the collection sent to Mr. Battle as compensation for his labors in building up the church. $3.00 was sent by Mr. Battle, a frequent visitor to the church, to Mr. Delk and Mr. Thompson to compensate them for their services at the constitution.

The first Protracted Meeting was held the third week in September 1849, beginning on Saturday "which day was set apart for humiliation and prayer". Mr. Battle was pastor and received $4.87½. It is interesting to note that the second revival or Protracted meeting, which was held in August 1850, was conducted by SEVERAL MINISTERS; our pastor Bro. Britton, Mr. Q. H. Trotman, Messrs. Leary, Webb, Nowell Shaw, Rochell, and Forbes. 40 joined the church and in 1854 50 joined the church. These meetings were held on the lawn outside the church, as the building was too small, and, as it was not their building, they couldn't enlarge it. We find in the Register of Deed's office, Jackson, N. C. in Book No. 35 called Deeds and Mortgages, page 47, that the governor of N.

C. gave a Grantor Deed to Silas Edwards for one acre of land, including the building, for religious purposes with certain restrictions, at a cost of 5c, in January 1853.

In the same book, No. 35, page 150, we find on May 28, 1853, Silas Edwards deeded the same land and house to William Boone, Isaac Baugham, James Atkinson, James B. Barnes, and John F. Johnson as Trustees of Roberts Chapel Baptist Church for religious purposes at a cost of $10.00. Therefore, the congregation had no building of their own for four years and 7 months period.

Roberts Chapel Baptist Church, who rehired its pastor every fall for a one-year tenure, has only four pastors during the 38 years from 1848 to 1886, and two of these held pastorates for 16 years each. Rev. William P. Britton, Jr., the first pastor, held that place until his much lamented death in 1853. He was Meherrin's pastor, also, during the later two years of his life, and their records read, "He was greatly loved, the church draped in mourning the pulpit and each door for 30 days when he died."

Rev. R. H. Sand, second pastor, only supplied here for 10 months (also at Meherrin church) and received $50.00 for his services here. Rev John N. Hoggard, third pastor, was followed by Rev. R. R. Savage. Each of these pastors served us 16 years, while Mr. Hoggard continued on at Meherrin for a tenure of 44 years in all. IT is these two pastors that our present older members first remember and speak of as truly men of God and some of Roberts Chapel's strongest pastors.

These years were very hard, lean years on the members of our chapel. The Civil War was in progress while Mr. Hoggard served us. Much mention is made of the slave members before and during this time. In the minutes of November 1854 we find the names of colored free persons were to be called out at each monthly conference. In January '55 Liza and Drew of A. Stephenson's estate, were expelled for disorderly conduct. In December '55 Isaac Baum's Rilley brought a letter from Mt. Carmel and was received in full fellowship of the church. Atkinson's Penny and Strickland's Charlotte, Yellow Miles, property of Mr. Henry W. Maddrey, and Jim Ricks, free boy bound to Bro. Silas Edwards, had all been received. Then came the war and on June 1 and 2, 1861 all the churches in the Chowan Association observed two days of fasting and "humiliation to Almighty God for His past favors and His protection and care in the future for us as a people in the Confederate States against the threat and fiendish design of the 'fanatics of the north'."

On 3rd Saturday in April 1864, it was voted that Jordan, a slave of Bro. Silas Edwards, be expelled for giving aid to "the Common Enemy, the Yankees and Buffaloe". Shortly after that, other negroes were either expelled for unchristian conduct or hurriedly withdrew their names from our church roll and formed churches of their own.

This church helped financially and spiritually in the building of other churches. The minutes read that in July 1855 a collection for the building of Corinth Baptist Church was taken up, and in August 1876, Bros. W. T. Lee and S. K. Edwards were appointed collectors for the building fund for Jackson Baptist Church. About this same time, July 1854, our church enrollment became so large a movement was on foot to enlarge our church building. It was not until 16 years later, though, in 1870, that something concrete was done. A building of original heart pine, dressed by hand, was constructed and was the one we all remembered having been burned in recent years. This building material was mostly given to the church and a good part of the labor. The most active members were J. Henry Edwards and Gus Stephenson who helped select the trees and looked after the hauling of the logs, and Mack Stephenson, who sawed most of the lumber "down at the mill" The house was completed in 1871, when Mr. Savage first became pastor, at the approximate cost of $1,000.00 in money.

About this time our members gradually grew from the Civil War influence and Reconstruction Period. They increased their gifts, paid more to their pastor, and enlarged the church grounds through a gift of D. N. Stephenson, in February 1875. They gave to the missionary fund of Rev. John Mitchell, Winton, N. C., who was sent to do missionary work between the Chowan and Tar Rivers, and in 1882 they raised funds for the Wingate Memorial Hall at Wake Forest College and other educational purposes.

Our church minutes reveal that our church members had good and kind hearts and were good to their neighbors. In October 1882 the church repaired Mrs. Julian F. Martin's chimney which had been destroyed by a severe storm. In December 1882 a collection was taken for the relief of Bros. John Atkinson and D. N. Stephenson, whose crops were mostly destroyed by a severe hail storm during the previous July. The collection amounted to cash $34.50 and supplies to 14 bu. of corn. Other members lost their houses and on through the years their church has been accustomed to helping one another.

In 1883 this church helped in the formation of a new association, "The West Chowan". Roberts Chapel being the fourth oldest member from Northampton County. In the same year the plan for Every Member Canvass for Benevolent objects was adopted. In 1884 the newly formed West Chowan Association met with our church and Roberts Chapel began its leadership in this association, with the prestige of its age, its gracious entertainment in the homes of its congregation, and the good sound philosophy of its members have carried with it during the decades. And as the text of Rev. Delk's sermon on the day of organization, our church has been a GREAT Church, "praising God, and having favor with all the people" throughout the years.

*"Beautiful is the large church
With stately arch and steeple;
Neighborly is the small church
With groups of friendly people.
Most sound is the old church
With centuries of grace,
And a wooden church or stone church
Can hold an altar space.
And whether it be a rich church
Or a poor church anywhere;
Truly it is a GREAT church
If God is worshipped there!*

History of Roberts Chapel Baptist Church 1886 to 1948

Rapid, indeed, have been the changes in our section of the country from forest into cultivated fields; from narrow dirt roads into wide highways—many of the hardsurfaced; from a few homes along the roadside to FOUR thriving villages or towns, with their many modern dwellings and churches, since our church history began. Mr. John Atkinson, who died in 1944, said that he remembered when the homes on the road from Boykins to Potecasi could be counted on his fingers. In step with the changing countryside our church has been continually changing with times and customs. That has been true, also, of our leaders. In addition to those already named and next in line was Mr. Chas. W. Scarborough, who came to us from Wake County in September 1886. He gave two Sundays per month to Buckhorn Church, the other half-time to Roberts Chapel, making his home in what is now the president's home at Chowan College. His was a long blessed pastorate of 22 years.

It was at his suggestion that the two "Infant Classrooms" were built on to the second church building in 1888, which were the first Sunday School Classrooms in the association. Our membership was greatly enlarged by more thorough work in a better Sunday School building and by more effort in Protracted Meetings. Rev. Billie Savage, Churchland, Va. the son of Rev. Robert R. Savage, held several meetings with great numbers uniting with our church. It was during Mr. Scarborough's pastorate that our membership was the largest, 500 or more members. From our church many members took Letters of Dismission to help organize Severn Baptist Church in 1896; Conway Baptist Church in 1905; and Ashley Grove in 1909. Eighty or more of our members took letters to unite with Conway at one meeting. It is interesting to know, also, that Mr. Scarborough helped to organize the Woodland Baptist Church on the first Sunday in August 1904.

On January 2, 1909, Rev. J. H. Poteat became pastor. He made his home at Como where he not only shepherded that church but helped them to build a new church home. He was strong in the Baptist Doctrine and lead our church faithfully for 3½ years. It was during his pastorate on December 4, 1909 that Junius Martin, colored, was granted a Letter of Dismission to unite with some colored church. He was our last colored member.

Rev. L. E. Dailey, who has recently completed his studies at our Southern Baptist Seminary, Louisville, Ky., came in August 1912 as pastor. He worked at both Buckhorn and Roberts Chapel for about 3 years, resigning then at Buckhorn and for a few weeks was half-time pastor of Roberts Chapel only. He moved his wife and wife's mother to Pendleton and lived in the Kenneth R. Maddrey house. It was then he took on Mt. Carmel and Kelford Baptist churches with ours as a field for about one year until his resignation.

The first records we have of a B. Y. P. U. for Roberts Chapel are recorded in the minutes of August 5, 1916, during his pastorate. It was held in connection with a Teacher Training Course at Sunday night services conducted by Mr. Dailey.

Rev. F. B. Raymond and his family lived at the pleasant county home of Mrs. Magette, Como, and was pastor of Buckhorn and Roberts Chapel for two years and seven months. It was while he was pastor that a cemetery committee was appointed and the cemetery was begun.

In October 1920 Rev. E. Norfleet Gardner of Franklin, Va. who had recently completed his studies at our Louisville Seminary, became pastor of Buckhorn and Roberts Chapel. Married at Christmas of that year to Ruth Carver, daughter of Dr. W. O. Carver of Louisville Seminary, he made his home in Pendleton at the "Yellow House", now occupied by the B. D. Stephensons. The young people of our church became very active in all phases of church work and were fortunate to enjoy the teachings and companionship of such Gardner friends and leaders as Dr. Kyle M. Yates, the talented Carver family, and Dr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Sadler, then missionaries to Africa.

Our second Roberts Chapel building was destroyed by fire on Sunday morning about 10:45 o'clock, December 14, 1924, the day Mr. Gardner's last sermon which was to end a successful 4 years and 2 months pastorate. He left this field for the pastorate of Mills Home Baptist Church, Thomasville, N. C.

Rev. J. Lewis Price became pastor of Roberts Chapel and Buckhorn on July 1, 1925. He and Mrs. Price with their son James, came to Pendleton to make the same house as the Gardner's their parsonage. Theirs was a 5 year 3½ month pleasant stay among us. Mr. Price's pastorate was during the building and collecting fund's period of this, our new church building. He saw that the proper committees were appointed, encouraged them in their duties, and put the collecting and building operations through with the least friction possible.

ON January 1, 1932 Roberts Chapel and Buckhorn parted the church field which was formed at the beginning of Mr. Savage's pastorate AFTER A PARTENERSHIP OF 62 YEARS. Rev. A. W. H. Jones, who was serving Severn and Margaretsville churches at the time and who lived at Severn, came to be our pastor. He was with us 4 years and 1 month. This was a period of depression when finances were low in both secular and religious work.

Rev. C. M. Pegram came to us as pastor of Roberts Chapel and Ashley Grove Baptist Churches June 7, 1936. He made his home at Pendleton in the W. J. Beale residence. His pastorate here was pleasant and progressive. Our church membership was enlivened by dropping the names of non-acting and receiving new members. Our church debt, which amounted to around $3,000 at his coming, was paid and the notes burned at the dedication of the church on August 5, 1937 He took much interest in our young people through the Sunday School and B. T. U.

On February 1, 1939 Rev. Lonnie Sasser moved from Aulander with Mrs. Sasser and their family and made the W. J. Beale residence their home while serving the field of churches, Roberts Chapel, Ashley Grove, and Lasker—for two years and 5 months. Bailey Jones was licensed to preach the Gospel and was ordained Sept. 1940 while Mr. Sasser was pastor. We had a large and active B. T. U. membership with Mr. Sasser's support.

Rev. Curtis Cleveland was living at Newsome, Va. and serving the Newsome Baptist Church on Jan. 1, 1942 when he became our pastor. He was with us 2 years when he left to become pastor of the Madison Heights Baptist Church, Lynchburg. Our Unified Budget System was introduced while they were with us.

Rev. Fletcher Ford of Emporia, Va. became our present pastor on March 1, 1944 with Severn Baptist Church as the field. He, Mrs. Ford, and their son, Billie, make their home in the Severn Parsonage. Since he has been with us, our program of service has been more systematic, our choir enlarged and more active, our church contributions increased considerably.

World War II brought sorrow for our church and Memorial Services for James Bristow, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Bristow, were held on June 29, 1947 with Mr. Ford presiding.

Ministers Who Have Gone Out From Our Church

As a GREAT church leads people to Christ, so does it send forth chosen ones to preach and minister to others. We find first on the list Rev. Jess Boone, who became a member of this church in 1849. He was ordained into the Baptist ministry at Roberts Chapel on 3rd Saturday in July, 1860, while Rev. J. N. Hoggard was pastor. He was granted a Letter of Dismission in April 1861. He then labored at the Thomasville Orphanage.

Rev. R. D. Stephenson united with Roberts Chapel by baptism in August 1889. After attending Wake Forest College, he moved his membership to Branchville, Va. where he taught school while his store partner, Mr. Jimmie Woodard, clerked in their store. When he decided to go in the ministry, he sold his interest in the store and attended our Louisville Seminary. The Branchville Baptist Church had Roberts Chapel to ordain him on August 23, 1905.

Mr. Jack Barnes was a man of mature age when he united with Roberts Chapel by baptism in 1870. He soon became active in Prayer Meetings and other church work. He attended school when a middle aged man that he might learn to read his Bible. On the 3rd Thursday in September, 1907, he was ordained into the ministry.

Rev. C. Bailey Jones grew up in our neighborhood and was active in our Sunday School and B. T. U. He was licensed to preach by Roberts Chapel on September 3, 1939 and he was ordained here on September 20, 1940. He has been studying at Chowan College, the University of Richmond, Crozier Seminary, and is at present at the Seminary in Philadelphia seeking his DD Degree. He has been doing pastoral work on the outside.

Dr. Kelly White, sent out by Conway Church, now pastor at a church in West Palm Beach, Fla. and who supplied for us while he was yet a student at Wake Forest, is the son of Rufus T. White, himself an ordained minister who for many years was an active member here. Dr. White is the grandson of Rhoda Stephenson White, who joined this church on that first day in 1848.

Rev. Joe Mack Long, sent out by Severn Church, is the grandson of Mack Long, who was a deacon for many years at our church before he moved to Severn Church and the great grandson of Jane Stephenson Woodard, who joined our church on that original day in 1848 and who formerly lived on this site and is buried in the graveyard beside this building. Mr. Long is now pastor at Coats, N. C.

W. H. Vinson, Jr., sent out by Menola Church, is the son of Vernie Stephenson Vinson who grew up as a member in this church with her entire family, "Uncle" Gus and "Aunt" Jennie Stephenson, her grandparents, were the teachers of our Men's Bible Class and Infant Class in their day. Billie is now Assistant Pastor and Music Education Director at Immanuel Baptist Church, Lexington, Ky.

Rev. Marion Stephenson of Rocky Mount, son of Fanny and Luther Stephenson and grandson of Mary Fleetwood and Arthur E. Stephenson, is a Methodist minister. He served in several circuits of the state and later as chaplain in the navy during the war. At present he is chaplain on board the Aircraft Carrier USS Sicily with the rank of Lt. Commander.

Rev H. C. Lowder came to us as principal of our school. He united with Roberts Chapel Church by Letter of 3rd Sunday in September 1926. He was ordained into the ministry by his home church, and is now pastor in Rocky Mount, N. C. He married Miss Rousseau Parker, one of our members and conductor of our choir.

Church Music

During the beginning of our church, singing was some what out of tune and out of time. The pastor or leader would read off the words of a verse or two and then the congregation would join in. They did this until they learned the words of the song. Song books were very scarce and without notes. After some years song books such as could be used at preaching services were available. Then came the Glad Refrain and the Gospel Hymnal—Songs suitable for all church services. Our pastors usually lead the singing at first, then came J Henry Edwards, Mack Stephenson, Henry Stephenson, Rufus White, Cora Lee Stephenson, Lillie Stephenson Edwards, Reola Lee Beale, Rev. C. M. Peagram, Rousseau Parker Lowder, Mary Parker Edwards, and Rev. Fletcher Ford.

For a long time some of our members thought it sacreligious to have any musical instrument in our church, but a change came about. Our minutes say a music committee was appointed to solicit funds to purchase an organ in 1903. R. T. White collected $5.50; Maude Hedgespeth collected $11.85; and Reola Lee Beale collected $84.50, total $101.85. The cost of the organ was $80.00. The remainder of the collection was invested in a carpet for the pulpit and aisles. To improve our church music we changed to piano music while Mr. Gardner was pastor.

Our organist have been Mesdames Mollie Boone Edwards Lillie Stephenson Edwards; Millie Stephenson Burgess; Maude Hedgespeth; Mattie Stephenson Johnson; Lizzie Stephenson Fleming; C. M. Pegram and Miss Emma Gay Stephenson; Viola Stephenson; and Jessie Mae Horne.

Finances Of Church

From the small collection of $3.12½ for incidental expenses and $4.78½ for expenses in 1849, our church finances have gradually grown with the years. The total expenditure of $24.00 for the year 1882 was increased to $320.01 in 1892. Two scholarships each year along the years of 1910-1914 were given to Chowan College beside the regular gifts. $657.34 was given to benevolence in 1925 besides local expenses. It was during the period of Mr. Dailey and Mr. Gardner's pastorate here that Roberts Chapel collected $7,500.00 on the 75 million Dollar Campaign with M. B. Johnson as chairman. From $2,506.84 in 1935 to $3,264.22 in 1945 our gifts have increased to $6,677.11 for 1948 of which $2,575.00 was for Chowan College.

Our gifts to our church show the changes of the times; the prices our people received for their labor and crops. Our membership was small at the beginning, became large and has reduced to 211 members. Many of our former members may be found taking part in many churches in several other states.

Our new church building and its problems in becoming a reality rather than a dream will be of interest. After our second building was destroyed by fire, our congregation quickly decided to build at Pendleton and purchased the Starkey Woodard property for the church site at a cost of $1,825.00.

In church conference Jan. 31, 1925 our church voted to try to build at a cost of $15,000. The ways and means committee read out a list of members and amounts each family would have to pay to build such a building. The report of the committee was adopted. Some members paid their apportionments at once in cash; some part cash and the remainder by notes due in one, two, or three year's time. Most of the money was collected during 1926-1929. B. D. and W. M. Stephenson were leaders of the Finance Committee. M. B. Johnson, W. H. Stephenson, L. A. Stephenson, R. W. Davis, D. H. Barnes, J. T. Woodard were the Building Committee who had this building ready for services in about a year's time.

The W. M. U. with Mrs. Capitola Parker and Mrs. O. L. Horne leaders collected the money to purchase the seats. When the windows heating and seats were all completed, the total amount was $18,000. At that time money was scarce and we yet owed $3,000. We put forth an effort, paid all debts and dedicated this building on Thursday, August 5, 1937, while Rev. Pegram was pastor.

Sabbath School of Roberts Chapel

During Rev. John N. Hoggard's pastorate, we find the first mention of Sunday School. "It was moved and carried that our church meet on the 4th Sabbath in April 1856 for the purpose of organizing a Sabbath School and Prayer Meeting." This seems to have fallen through. Again in conference they agreed to organize a Sabbath School "at this place on 3rd Lord's Day in May 1868. Reading and explaining the passage read, prayer and singing" seems to have been their Sabbath School. They had no Sunday School literature. Children were entertained in the corner with the leaders telling Bible stories and using, McGuffrey Readers, and Blue Back Spelling Books. Later on, leaflets and papers with the International S. S. Lessons were used; then came our Graded Lessons, Quarterlies S. S. rooms and departments. The building of the two "Infant Classrooms" to old Roberts Chapel gave us five classes in the church building besides these two rooms. The result was a great increase of interest and more workers. The Supts. have been J. Henry Edwards, D. N. Stephenson, Jimmie Woodard, John H. Odom, W. J. Beale, Prof. Jeff Joyner, R. T. White, L. A. Stephenson, B. F. Martin, H. P. Stephenson, J. E. Johnson, W. H. Stephenson, J. C. Edwards, J. N. Horne, M. B. Johnson, N. B. Boone, Earl Lewter, and Robert Edwards.

Our teachers have been too numerous to name. Some of them other than our Superintendents who were teachers have been "Uncle" Gus Stephenson, Johnnie W. Martin, Henry Stephenson, Mrs. John Sykes, Mrs. Annie Joyner, Mrs. Capitola Parker, Mr. J. C. Taylor, Misses Mattie, Clara, Lennie and Lizzie Stephenson, "Aunt" Susie Stephenson, Miss Fannie Wall, Miss Mattie Hedgespeth, Mrs. C. M. Pegram, "Aunt" Jennie Stephenson, Miss Reola Lee, and many others.

As we complete our review of the century of religious progress and activity of fine, old Roberts Chapel Baptist Church, may our prayer be that of the former Kate Sykes, who wrote and read at our church dedication in 1937.

*"Roberts Chapel, beautiful House of God. you're standing as a great light on a hill.
Your doors are open, may many joyfully enter and learn of our Saviour's will
And your church of fine men, women and children welcoming the stranger, too.
May you keep the light shining brightly, and make the Golden Bells ring true".*
